

Here is something to know. Latin present tense verbs mean even more in English. You complete the rest of the chart.

Latin singular verbs	Simple English translation	Progressive English translation	Emphatic English translation ōrō	I pray.	I am praying.	I do pray.
ōrās	You pray.	You are praying.	You do pray. ōrat	He, she, it prays.	He, she, or it is praying.	He, she or it does pray.

Practice your conjugation skills with the given Latin verbs.

Singular	Meaning	Plural	Meaning
ōrō	I pray/speak.	ōrāmus	We pray/speak.
ōrās	You pray/speak.	ōratis	You (pl.) pray/speak. ōrāt	He, she or it prays/speaks.	ōrant	They pray/speak.

Practice your conjugation skills with the given Latin verbs.

Singular	Meaning	Plural	Meaning
labōrō	I work.	labōrāmus	We work. labōras	You work.	labōrātis	You (pl.) work. labōrat	He, she or it works.	labōrant	They work.

Singular	Meaning	Plural	Meaning
spectō	I look at.	spectāmus	We look at.
spectās	You look at.	spectātis	You (pl.) look at. spectāt	He, she or it looks at.	spectant	They look at.